

Early Career Scholars Workshop
Conflicts of sovereignty in the European Union in Crisis (SovEU)
Université libre de Bruxelles, 26 November 2020

How it started:

How it's going:

Thursday, 26 November

9.15am: Introductory words

9:30am-11am Session 1: Discourses of Sovereignty in Party Politics

Discussants: Ramona Coman, Nathalie Brack

Laura Chazel (PhD Sciences Po Grenoble) “Left-wing Populism and Sovereignty: An Analysis of Jean-Luc Mélenchon’s Discourse”

Alexander Alekseev (PhD, Higher School of Economics, Moscow) “Concept(s) of Sovereignty in the Discourse of the EU Populist Radical Right: The Right of the People and the Right of the Peoples”

Marta Lorimer (Postdoctoral Research Associate, University of Exeter and Visiting Fellow, LSE) “What is it, and why does it matter? The meaning of sovereignty in the Rassemblement National’s critique of European integration”

11am-11.30am: coffee break

11:30am-1pm Session 2: Conflicts of sovereignty at the supranational and national level

Discussants: Chris Bickerton, Amandine Crespy

Aysel Küçüksu & Nicholas Haagenen (iCourts, University of Copenhagen) “Who Rules the European Union in Times of Crisis (According to the CJEU)?”

Emilija Tudjarovska (PLATO PhD Institute of Sociology, Czech Academy of Sciences) “Conflicts of parliamentary and popular sovereignty on nation-state level: old or new conundrum?”

1pm-2pm lunch break

2pm-3:30pm: Session 3: Legal and political theory approaches to conflicts of sovereignty

Discussants: Amandine Crespy, Chloé Brière

Hugo Canihac (FNRS Post-doctoral researcher, Saint-Louis University, Brussels) “On the uses of ‘constitutional pluralism’ in the EU since Maastricht”

Nicolas Arens (Ispole, UCLouvain) ““Who rule”, the conflicts of sovereignty in light of the unresolved democratic dynamic at the EU level”